Follow up letter

Respected , I am sending this letter to present you my personality , experience and why am I suitable for this job. So, I am signing for a job as developer . Position in your company looks interesting and I think that as an employee I can show my knowledge, improve myself and to learn a lot and to get new experience.

So far , I have done many projects , but biggest of them are:

- Applications for fast food, hotels, pharmacy company(React-Native JS)
- Software for optical shop , European security organisation(React[Electron])
- Many Websites(HTML,CSS,JS)
- VR HTC Vive (Unity)

During this projects , I had an opportunity to meet different kind of activities where I have managed to show my creativity and manageability. Since some of these projects were for big companies , I had the pressure on the deadlines and great expectations, but I proved that I have the quality of a hard-worker to be able to work under pressure and often work overtime. I'm currently volunteering for college (Alfa University), where I am studying Information Technologies, working on mobile application "Virtual Doctor". I am In the final year I studied at this faculty and my GPA is 8,5. I am very satisfied because I studied and worked in parallel time. I can say for myself that I am a perfectionist, i have team spirit, but also i can be good in individual assignments when there is a problem. I would be very grateful if you would allow me to personally explain all the details to you, and present in detail all previous projects. I sincerely hope that I will be part of your team and that I will have the opportunity to show you all my skills, but also learn a lot from you.

Best regards ,

Nikola Djordjevic
